MAYFIELD WINS

FROM PERRYVILLE

Both Boys and Girls Teams Win Here Last Friday Night

Last Friday night in the gymnasium here both the boy and girl teams of the College won from the Perryville high school teams, the girls winning by a score of 12 to 10 and the boys 50 to 8.

This is the last game for the Mayfield girls this year. They have played ten games and won all of them.

Both games were interesting from start to finish. The girls' score was tied until the last few minutes of play when the Mayfield team made a field goal.

Several substitutes were used on the Mayfield boys team in the last half or the score would probably have been more.

BLODGETT BANK TO BE RE-OPENED SOON

Geo. Buchanan, president of the Blodgett Bank, told the Herald yesterday that arrangements are being made to re-open the bank in a short time. The bank was ordered closed last week by Commissioner of Finance J. G. Hughes because sums to the amount of $34,000 had been extended to the Jno. E. Marshall Mercantile Co. of Blodgett, and the mercantile company had not been able to repay the money promptly.

In all respects except the credit extended the mercantile company, the Blodgett bank was in good shape.

It has a capital stock of $30,000 and a surplus of $15,000;

has no bills payable and its deposits are intact.

In order to secure the sums due the bank from the mercantile company, Mr. Buchanan has been elected president of the mercantile company, which is a corporation, with instruction to sell the property outright or to conduct a special sale of its stock of merchandise in order to secure enough money to pay the bank.

Mr. Buchanan is already negotiating with parties for the sale of the store.

As soon as the company can repay the bank the latter will re-open for business.

The Bank of Marion, in Bolinger county, was also involved in the sums advanced to the store and Commissioner Hughes closed that bank at the same time he did the Blodgett bank.

The Jno. E. Marshall Mercantile Co. was organized and incorporated several years ago by the late Senator Marshall, of Sikeston.

About three years ago his heirs sold their interests to Blodgett citizens.

Thereafter the principal stock holders were Harley Smith, president and manager; Emmer and Evin Burke, T. J. Bonnifield, W. H. Hampton and W. V. Caughlin.

It is said that the sums advanced by the bank were well secured, but it seems that Commissioner Hughes considered the amount too great in this instance.

All parties connected with both the store and the bank are substantial citizens and doubtless will soon get the affairs of both institutions in good shape—Sikeston Herald.

"HAIRPINS" A Rhymed Review

By Homer D. Chandler

Pretty, but a trifle faded,

Just a young, old-fashioned wife

With a husband who was jaded

By their drab and frugal life

When a dainty painted lady

Vamped him, wife learned the truth

Did she cry and play the baby?

Flee to Reno—or Duruth?

Now her plan was far more clever

Startled hubby won the day

Tell you all about it? Never!

Come and see the photoplay

Saturday Nite, March 11

"Tell you all about it? Never!
Come and see the photoplay".

Oscar T. Honey, leader of the band will be here for this show. This will be the first time the people of the towns have heard the band play under his direction and say people, be sure can get more music out of the boys than anyone would dream.

Mr. Honey will also play for you, and believe us he sure can play.

We will also have good shows on Monday nite the 13th and Tuesday nite the 14th. We have not learned just what they will be, but will not accept anything that is not first class.

A truck will be in front of the courthouse in Marble Hill at 7 o'clock to carry passengers to all three shows.

ALL SHOWS START AT 7:30 P. M.

GLASGOW, MISSOURI

March 5th, 1922.

To the Marble Hill Press and bring out of it a lesson just as follows:

March 5th, 1922. Josephine characters are more but when Fred's wife disappears

the 18th day of February I was alone with the blossoms of all the new state of affairs she had business in St. Louis and had nothing to do but sit and think

With her wife in all my mind I knew that her was made to realize how wonderful she really was. That's why he begged her to return to her former ways of being and found real happiness in domesticity.

Miss Bennett never had a more fitting role than that which she portrays in "Hairpins". Matt

Moore is seen in the role of her husband. The picture was directed by Fred Nibley under the personal supervision of Thomas

H. Ince. The supporting company is excellent.

A short program was given at Drum's hall Tuesday night by the Lutesville high school basket ball team. The receipts will be used to defray the expenses of the team to the tournament at the Cape the latter part of this week. The program was enjoyed by all present.

Last Monday night in Masonic hall or between Masonic hall and public school, diamond set out of ring. Reward for return to Mrs. M. C. Sander, Marble Hill.
